NETA 2015

"The smartest person in the room is the room"

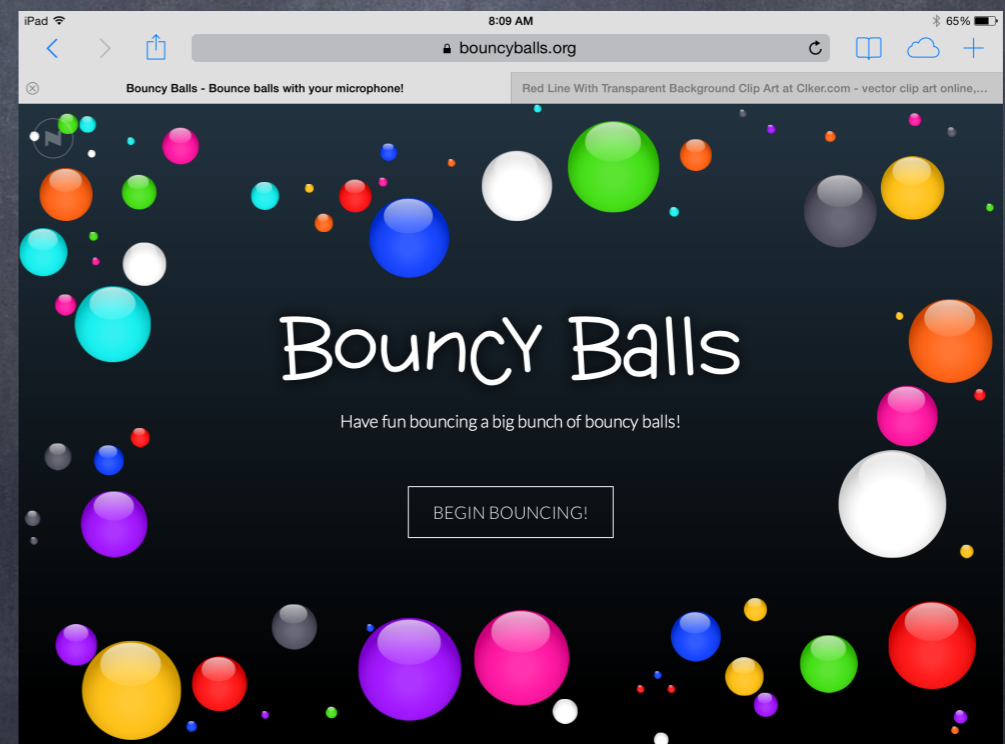

"If you simply give kids a device to take notes, you've given them a $1,000 pencil."

"Would you want to spend the whole day in your classroom?"

500,000 apps in 45 minutes

- Get a twitter account and follow educators!
- Instead of "there's an app for that," think of twitter as, "there's a person for that."
- Tweechme (app for teaching teachers how to use twitter)
- "If you don't know what a hashtag or handle is, you're illiterate."
- Follow me! @michellekopecky
- eduClipper- a social learning network for sharing content, creating assignments, and digital portfolios.

The Twitter logo, consisting of the word "twitter" in a lowercase, sans-serif font followed by a white bird icon on a blue rectangular background.

SAMR

- Substitution: same stuff, different device
- Augmentation: FML functionally more lively
- Modification: LMFAO leveraging more functionally, artistry, & outreach
- Redefinition: WTF without technology, forget it.

Speaker from McGraw-Hill

- We've been ready for districts to stop buying textbooks for a decade.
- Information should be coming from in to out, not out to in. Must improve teacher attitudes toward technology.
- iPads are the crack cocaine of education for 5 years, but districts buy thousands of iPads with no plan how to use them.

Speaker from McGraw-Hill

- iPads great for K-2, 3-6 need laptops.
- Computers can not give adaptive responses so supplement like crazy, but an app is not your core instruction.

CyberTipline

The CyberTipline® website was the first reporting destination for reports of sexual exploitation (sexting) against children. More than 17 million reports of suspected child sexual exploitation have been received by CyberTipline between 2008 and December 2012.

For more information regarding sexting, visit www.missingkids.com/cybertipline.

Report and Service

The CyberTipline program is partnering with the FBI, Department of Justice, U.S. Postal Inspection Service, U.S. Coast Guard, U.S. Customs and Border Protection, U.S. Department of Justice, Internal Security Agency, Child Welfare Services, and other state and local law enforcement agencies. Reports made by CyberTipline are made to the state or federal law enforcement agency that is required to be a law enforcement agency in the jurisdiction where CyberTipline is located.
